

LAST EDITION.
EXTRA.
DARING BURGLARS.

The St. Johnsville Bank Robbed of $10,000.

They Dug a Hole Under the Vault and Blew Open the Safe.

Nothing but a Few Tools Left Behind by the Cracksmen—The Break Took Place About Midnight—The Robbers Were Evidently Skilled Professionals and Did Their Work Cleverly—Perhaps the Bank's Loss Is More Than $10,000.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
ST. JOHNSTVILLE, DEPOT, N. Y., April 13.—Burglars entered the bank in this place about midnight last night, dug a hole through the vault, blew open the safe, and took $10,000 in cash and eight twenty-dollar unsigned bank bills. They left a number of their tools. The robbers were evidently skilled professionals. The town is fairly bubbling over with excitement. When the janitor of the First National Bank, of this place, entered the bank at 5.30 this morning he found the door covered with debris, iron doors, silver coin and papers, and that the safe had been robbed during the night. He immediately notified the officials, and upon investigation it was found that the robbers had effected an entrance through a rear window, then dug a hole through the wall of the vault, then pried open the door of the vault door and blown open the inside. The burglars also took a gold watch and chain, valued at $75, belonging to J. H. Markle, Assistant Cashier, and some jewelry that was left for safe keeping. The bank was organized in 1864 with $50,000 capital stock, and on Jan. 1, 1888, had a surplus of $7,000, so that the loss will not affect the credit of the bank. At 11 A. M. the bank opened for business as usual.

ONE CHANCE IN SIX.

Mr. Conkling Continues to Improve and is Almost Out of Danger.

The dawn brought more encouraging reports from the sick room of ex-Senator Conkling to-day. He slept quietly and naturally all night, and although occasionally slightly delirious, he has not been in such acute pain. Mr. Conkling's hair was shorn from his head over the ear to facilitate the operation of Monday. This gives him an appearance which startles his friends when they see him for the first time.

At 9.20 Pat Murray, the Hoffman House porter, who has influence over Mr. Conkling in moments of delirium, was called in while Drs. Barker and Sands made their morning visit.

When Dr. Barker left, at 10 o'clock, he said to an EVENING WORLD reporter: "There is a marked improvement. Mr. Conkling spent a good night in natural sleep without the aid of any narcotics or bromide. His pulse now is 74 and his temperature 92. He is more natural when awake."

The disease is a slow one, but now I am prepared to say that the Senator has one chance of recovery in six."

When asked regarding the opinion expressed by the Medical Record that the rule was that death followed the operation performed on the Senator Dr. Barker said: "That is true. I have said there are five chances out of six against us."

Mr. Conkling is suffering from an inflammation of the membrane covering the brain—a treacherous and dangerous disease. But for more than twenty-four hours he has been improving perceptibly, and I repeat, no more complication arises, he will win."

Dr. Barker said that Mr. Conkling is in the second stage of his malady—the stage of delirium. Should he continue for another twenty-four hours as he has been for the past thirty-six it would be fair to predict that he would be out of danger, and in a week he would be on the convalescent list.

The Emperor's Condition Causes Anxiety.

(BY CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
BERLIN, April 13.—The anxiety felt for the Emperor in all parts of the city and by all classes of citizens has been intensified by the intelligence furnished to-day by the North German Gazette, that the physicians have been obliged to have recourse to further measures of relief for the imperial patient.

The fact that an operation was thought necessary tends to confirm the general belief that the Emperor's condition is critical.

Accused by Two Actresses.

Mrs. Byrnes of 131 Ave. C, the actress known as Ray Madison, went to the Jefferson Market Court this morning with the actress Miss Mary Addison, who prosecutes Edwin Lawrence, a dramatic teacher on a charge of seduction. It is alleged that he engaged them both as leading ladies in one company, got $400 from Ray Madison and went West. The case was set down for examination to-morrow.

In This Mary Quinn's Body?

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
BOSTON, April 13.—The badly decomposed body of a young woman, supposed to be that of Mary Quinn, who jumped into the harbor some days ago in a fit of despondency, was found floating near the pier where she was found. The girl's parents have been notified and will visit the body at the morgue.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

Had a Good Time and Then Cried.

William J. Neely, aged ten, of 1109 First avenue, spent all his money last night on a ticket to Poole's Theatre and a play, and then he cried. Police Officer Fisher found him crying in front of the theatre and took him home.

Read "How the United States Treasury Was Robbed," a detective story furnished by Inspector Henry V. Steers, in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.